

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The people of the state of South Dakota have been fortunate to be the recipients of the endeavors of a special class of individuals devoted to making our state a better place to live; and,

Whereas, Daryl Haeder has been employed by the state of South Dakota for 38 years, most recently as manager of South Dakota State Federal Surplus Property, and will retire; and,

Whereas, Daryl exemplifies the Code of Ethics, established by the National Association of State Agencies for Surplus Property (NASASP) by providing leadership in establishing and promoting the ways and means of acquiring and distributing equitably federal personal property to public agencies and other eligible entities, conducting education programs which lead to a better understanding of the public benefits derived from the utilization of such property, and cooperating with the federal government in developing, promoting, and maintaining standard practices throughout the nation in warehousing, distributing, accounting, and transferring of available federal property; and,

Whereas, Daryl was recently honored by NASASP with the first annual Daryl Haeder Lifetime Achievement Award which will be presented annually in Daryl's honor to any member of a state agency for surplus property who embodies the principles that are guided by honor, honesty, and integrity in order that those agencies may merit the respect and confidence of associates and the public they serve; and,

Whereas, Daryl's commitment to the state of South Dakota and the community of Huron, and his dedication, hard work, and motivation have made him a role model for all state employees; and,

Whereas, Daryl has earned the opportunity to enjoy his retirement with his wife, Linda, and his children, Corey, Donna, Lisa, and Lori, and his four grandsons; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as governor to recognize Daryl's commitment to making South Dakota a better place to live.

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 8, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and many friends in offering him best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.
